

Candidacy nomination for
Lawrence S. Neinstein Award in Young Adult Health

My nomination for consideration for the 2021 Lawrence S. Neinstein Award in Young Adult Health Award is:

Nominees need not be members of SAHM, but nominations must come from members of the Society.

Phone number of nominee: _____ Email of nominee: _____

Your name (nominator): _____

Your phone number: _____ Your email address: _____

Deadline to submit application materials is February 25, 2021, 11:59 pm CST. Materials must be uploaded in one PDF document here.

Please submit a detailed nomination letter below, stating reasons why the nominee merits consideration for this award.

Remarks should focus on the nominee's contributions in either or both research and/or innovation in health professions education (involving patients (young adults), parents, health professionals, trainees or the community) in a health-related discipline. Further, the nominating letter should outline how this work has had a significant and positive impact on young adult health. Specifically, the nomination letter should focus on one or more area(s) from those listed below in which the nominee has excelled:

- Mentoring Accomplishments
- Program Development
- Leadership in Education Accomplishments
- Professional Development
- Excellence in Teaching
- Curriculum development
- Publication of education research
- Education policy
- Innovative educational contribution

Candidacy nomination letter for Lawrence S. Neinstein Award in Young Adult Health: